Friend, in our household circle
Now is seen one vacant chair;
Father's gone, and O, how lonely
Seems our household—he's not there!

When he lay upon his death bed,
Oft we stood around his couch,
Prayed that we in heaven might meet him,
When our earthly race is run.

But why mourn we that he is dead,
He only sleeps in a peaceful bed;
God called him to a sweet repose,
And he will sleep through winter's snows.

Then let him rest in the peaceful grave,
Beside the loved and dead,
For the quiet is the only place
To rest his weary head.

Adieu, sweet treasure of our love,
A fond and last farewell,
Thy spirit seeks the realms above—
Father, once more, farewell, farewell! J. M.

In the cold grave, in sweet repose,
Is laid a mother's dearest pride;
A flower that scarce had waked to life,
And light, and beauty, ere it died.

God in his wisdom has recalled,
The precious child his love had given;
And though the body moulders here,
The gem is sparkling now in Heaven.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God, the Father of our spirits and searcher of all hearts, by a dispensation of his Providence, to remove from the fullness of life to the fruition of eternity our late brother, Past Grand HIRAM C. METCALFE, thus sadly and impressively admonishing us that "in the midst of life we are in death," and as honorable tributes of respect to the dead are deemed the surest evidences of the regard with which their memory will be cherished by the living, we desire to place on record a faithful expression of our sense of the loss sustained by our beloved Order, in our brother's untimely decease; and also to express our sympathy with the feelings of his bereaved family and numerous friends and acquaintances, whose hearts will ever keep him in fond remembrance and will cherish his recollection as an evergreen in their memories. His early study and appreciation of the elevated spirit of Odd Fellowship—his attention to the duties of subordinate offices—his probity in the discharge of responsible trusts—his courtesy and impartiality in all his varied relationships with our brotherhood and his private worth and integrity, are well worthy of emulation, and endear him to us in the strong bonds of friendship and love, which have connected him with us through a long and useful career, and we cannot too deeply feel our loss—therefore

Resolved, That in the death of brother Metcalfe, York Springs Lodge has lost one of its most devoted adherents and the community a citizen whose philanthropy and integrity won for him the respect and esteem of all who knew him.

Resolved, That we tender to the family of our lamented brother assurances of our strong and earnest sympathy with them in this their hour of darkness and suffering, knowing that the strength to bear their affliction must come from Him who sent it, and though they drink deeply of that cup whose sorrows no earthly solace can render less bitter, their lasting comfort must come from resignation to the will of that merciful Father, who is too wise to err and too good to be unkind.

Resolved, That in testimony of the respect we bear to his memory as a faithful and devoted friend, associate and brother, this preamble and resolutions be published in the county papers, and be engrossed on the journal of the Lodge, and that a copy be sent to his bereaved widow and family.

Resolved, That the Lodge room be draped in mourning and that each member wear the usual mourning badge for thirty days.

The above preamble and resolutions were adopted by York Springs Lodge, No. 211 I. O. O. F., on Thursday evening, March 20th, 1860.

Singular Death of a Woman by the use of Whiskey.—The wife of Julius M. Smith, Esq, of Concord, Mass., came to her death recently by drinking a tumbler and a half of whiskey, in order to have some teeth extracted. An effort at the start was made to have her take ether or chloroform, which she appeared to think would injure her. She was about 30 years old.

REASON AND COMMON SENSE.—Our readers may remember we have on several occasions spoken in very eulogistic terms of a preparation which Dr. SETH S. HANCE, of 168 Baltimore street, Baltimore, Md., has discovered for the cure of Epileptic Fits. Now, in doing so, we have been actuated by the very best motives, viz: the alleviation of human suffering. From circumstances which have lately come to our knowledge, we fear there is a certain class of persons who are disposed to try this remedy in a common sense manner. We allude to the fact of selecting a particular case in a town where perhaps there are six or eight cases, and trying it on one case. Now, perhaps the case selected might be the only one of the whole number that it would not cure. This is neither doing themselves nor the medicine justice. If a dozen persons were stricken down with cholera in one town or neighborhood, would they all send for a physician, or would only one employ him, and wait and see if he cured the first patient? That plan of procedure would be most absurd. So in the case of Dr. Hance's remedy, every one who has Fits should try it for a reasonable length of time. It will not cure in a day or week; nothing worth doing can be accomplished at once. What is easily done, is as easily undone. The growth of time is enduring. From the most respectable testimony we have examined, we feel assured that by a proper perseverance in this remedy, nine cases of Epilepsy out of ten may be cured. The Pills are sent by mail free of postage to any part of the world. Price: one box $3; two $5; twelve $24. You will find the address above.

Fruit and Ornamental TREES FOR SALE.

GEORGE PETERS & CO., Proprietors of "Fair Mount Nurseries," Bendersville, Adams county, Pa.

We would respectfully call the attention of the public to our large stock of Fruit and Ornamental Trees, such as Apple, Peach, Standard and Dwarf Pear, Cherry, Apricot and Plum Trees; Grapevines; Blackberry, Gooseberry and Currant stalks; Ornamental and Evergreens, which we offer for next fall sales. We have appointed JOHN BURKHOLDER, Esq., our traveling agent, who is authorized to make sales and take orders.

FAIR MOUNT NURSERIES having been established for more than 20 years, the Proprietors flatter themselves that their trees are of the best selected kinds, having fruited many of them, and knowing what they are. The greatly increased and increasing spirit of planting, as well as the degree of patronage extended to us, warrant us in greatly increasing our nurseries, so that we are prepared to offer for the autumn of 1859 and succeeding years, a much more extensive stock than ever offered before—cultivating from 35 to 40 acres, containing several hundred thousand trees at various stages of growth, all of which are grown on soil and under treatment best calculated to make a healthy and natural growth.

GEORGE PETERS & CO.

☞The undersigned having accepted the above Agency for the sale of Fruit Trees in this county, takes this method of informing the public, that those wishing to purchase trees will please take the subject into consideration before I call personally upon them, as I expect to canvass a portion of the county. All letters upon the subject, addressed to me at Bendersville, or left at any of the Hotels in Gettysburg, will be attended to. Catalogues can be found at all the printing offices. Persons wishing to select from catalogues can there see them. I will be in Gettysburg during Court weeks, so that persons wishing to purchase fruit can see me. The cultivation of good fruit of all kinds has been entirely too much neglected in this county. The demand for good fruit is very much on the increase.
