

Kidnapping the President.

The New York Tribune publishes an interesting letter written, it says, by a gentleman who was until recently employed in the War Department of the Rebel Government...

In a former communication I stated that a plan had been submitted to the Rebel War Department by Col. Margrave...

One hundred and fifty picked men were to go secretly North, and take quarters in Washington, Georgetown, Baltimore and Alexandria...

The Secretary of War thought this scheme might succeed, but he doubted whether such a proceeding would be of a military character and justifiable under the laws of war...

But this is not the only scheme by which means that has been devised for kidnapping our President. Last summer a club or society of wealthy citizens of Richmond was formed for the purpose of raising a fund for this object...

Whether these schemes have been abandoned, or whether the kidnapers are only awaiting a favorable opportunity to execute them, remains to be seen...

THE CATHOLIC PRESS AND SLAVERY.

At the outbreak of the rebellion, Brownson's Quarterly Review was almost the only advocate of an Anti Slavery policy among all the Catholic journals...

Perley Vengeance, a youth of fortune and to fame unknown, but nevertheless a nephew of the great Ohio martyr...

A Louisiana Unionist who enlisted in the 12th Connecticut Regiment, and came with it on its recent forlorn march...

THE ADAMS SENTINEL.

Tuesday Evening, March 29, 1864.

THE CHOICE OF THE PEOPLE FOR PRESIDENT.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

Several of our citizens recently had an opportunity of conversing with Captain Charlier, of New York City, who was captured by the enemy at Gettysburg...

The "Old Folks" Concert passed off very handsomely—every one present being highly gratified. We understand that they have it in contemplation to give another show, with a different programme...

The bill incorporating the Soldiers' National Cemetery at Gettysburg, passed the House of Representatives last week. Mr. Marshall read in place a further supplement to the act...

The State Senate has passed a bill making the term of constables five years instead of one, as heretofore.

The First National Bank of Gettysburg, Pa.—President, George Throne; Cashier, George Arnold.

Senator Bechtel, and Delegate Wheat of Morgan county, Va., who were at Berkeley Springs a few days ago, were captured by some guerrillas...

DEATH OF A CHEROKEE.—Rev. F. A. M. Keller, pastor of St. James' Lutheran Church at Reading, Pa., died on the 18th instant, in the 44th year of his age...

The Impeachment of Judge Miller. The House Committee on the Judiciary has been discharged from the consideration of memorials asking for the impeachment of District Judge Miller...

The Ways and Means Committee have nearly perfected the tax bill. They are likely to come to Secretary Chase's views on whiskey, placing a dollar tax per gallon on it...

Operations in Virginia will commence much sooner than many suppose. General Grant will not waste time in idle reviews, but, as soon as he obtains a knowledge of the material with which he is to operate, will make his offensive movements promptly and with a vigor which has recently been unparalleled.

THE QUOTA OF PENNSYLVANIA. HARRISBURG, March 25.—An investigation of the official figures discloses the fact that when credit is given to Pennsylvania for enlistments in the regular and marine service and navy, her quota, under the call for 500,000 men, will be nearly, if not quite full...

THE NATIONAL CEMETERY.

The following article from the Wilmington (Delaware) Republican, shows the veneration in which our dead heroes of the rebellion are held by the Copperheads:

The Sausburyites having defeated the proposition in the Legislature to appropriate the sum of $125 towards defraying that part of the cost of the National Cemetery at Gettysburg...

A PATRIOTIC FAMILY.—The following item has been handed to us for publication. Accompanying it was a letter addressed to Mr. JACOB STARNER, of this county, breathing the most patriotic spirit...

Exhibition of St. James' Luth. Church. Mr. Editor.—We chanced to be present at the exhibition given in St. James' Lutheran Church on the evening of the 24th inst., and wish to bear testimony to the universal satisfaction given by the School. The densely crowded room at an early hour, evinced the fact, that a treat was expected; and the school, under its energetic superintendent, can flatter themselves that the audience was not disappointed.

Returning Veterans. Five hundred return in many instances where two hundred go home. Oftentimes the proportion is less. I know of several instances where it is greater.

A Tributes to the President. WASHINGTON, March 21, 1864.—A committee of twenty-six, on behalf of the Workingmen's Democratic Republican Association of New York City, today presented an address to the President informing him that he had been elected an honorary member of the association...

State Declarations in Favor of the Re-election of Abraham Lincoln. The Legislature of Pennsylvania was the first official body, directly representing the interests and political sentiments of the masses of the people, which declared in favor of the re-election of Abraham Lincoln!

State Declarations in Favor of the Re-election of Abraham Lincoln. The States may be enumerated as follows: Pennsylvania Legislature, New Jersey Legislature, California Legislature, Ohio Legislature, Maryland Legislature, Michigan Legislature, Wisconsin Legislature, Kansas Legislature, Rhode Island Legislature, Minnesota State Convention, Iowa State Convention, Indiana State Convention, New Hampshire State Convention, Connecticut State Convention, Maine Legislature.

Throat Diseases.—We would call attention to Brown's Bronchial Troches. We have found them efficacious in allaying irritation in the throat and bronchia, and would commend them to the attention of Public Speakers, and others troubled with affections of the throat. They are also an excellent remedy for hoarseness resulting from cold.

JENNY LIND AGAIN.—What a foul report has been circulated about Jenny Lind, but her voice is too sweet to be injured, and if you wish to keep your voice, lungs, throat, &c., free from colds, try a box of Bryan's Pulmonic Waters, 25 cents a box. All Druggists sell them.

THE FIGHT AT VIDALIA, LA.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—Col. McCaleb officially communicates the part taken by his command in the late action at Vidalia, Louisiana, which resulted in victory to our troops.

Provost Marshal General Fry on Tuesday issued an important statement, showing the exact account of each State, on the 1st of March, 1864, as regards the filling of the quotas under the several calls for troops.

The Copperheads affect great apprehension that amalgamation might take place should slavery be abolished. This apprehension is not consistent with the actual facts of their history.

An elegant dressed lady entered a Chicago store last week, and purchasing some silk, tendered a hundred dollar Canadian bill. Not being satisfied as to its genuineness, a boy was sent off with it to the bank, who returned with "as good as gold!"

It is stated that the wife of the rebel Gen. Stuart has been enjoying the hospitalities of her friends in Washington and Georgetown for nearly a year, and is still there.

THE NEW STATES.—The President has signed the enabling acts for Nevada, Colorado and Nebraska, allowing them to form State constitutions and come into the Union.

CHILDREN OF THE BATTLE-FIELD.

The remains of Sergeant HUMPHREYS, the subject of the following beautiful poem, have been discovered on the Gettysburg battle-field, disinterred and removed to the Soldiers' National Cemetery and buried in the New York State Lot, Section B, No. 14.

Upon the field of Gettysburg, When Freedom's sun was high, When Freedom met her traitorous foe...

Upon the field of Gettysburg, When morning shone again, The crimson cloud of battle burst in streams of fiery rain...
