COMMUNION services at St. Mark's Reformed church, next Sunday at 10 o'clock, a. m. Preparatory services on Saturday at 2 p. m.

QUARTERLY meeting at U. B. Church in Gettysburg next Sabbath. Communion on Sabbath morning. Sabbath-school ingathering at 2 p. m. Rev. J. Lower Grimm, of St. Thomas, is expected to do the preaching.

PLEASANT TRIP.—Yesterday Hon. David Wills took a party of twenty ladies and gentlemen on a special car to Cherry Run, leaving here at 5.50 a. m. and returning at 3.52 p. m. All enjoyed the ride and the beautiful scenery along the route of the W. M. R. R.

BIG SUCCESS.—The excursion of Very Rev. J. A. Bolt, to Baltimore, to view the imposing parade in honor of Columbus Day, had 1,250 passengers on two crowded sections. This number exceeds by several hundred any previous excursion over our division of the Western Maryland railroad, far exceeding the most sanguine expectations of himself and the railroad officials.

FIRE.—On Tuesday night the mill of Mr. John C. Minter, in Franklin township, was destroyed by fire, supposed to have caught from a stove pipe. The building and contents were consumed. Insured for about $1,800 in the Liberty and Independent Company.

About 10 o'clock the same evening, the burning of an old shed, near the Preparatory building, called out the Fire department, but no loss of any consequence resulted.

MR. JESSE DULL, of Menallen township, placed on our table, on Saturday, a well preserved specimen of the Smith's Cider apple, grown last year on his farm.

IMPROVEMENTS.—Messrs. J. Henry Sanders & Son have introduced steam heat into their new store and residence. Mr. John M. Huber has contracted with the same firm, Messrs. R. D. Armor & Son, for a similar plant in his residence.

Dr. Walter H. O'Neal is renewing the back-building recently burned, adjoining his office, with brick.

Dr. J. B. Scott has erected a stable on his lot, Chambersburg street, second square.

THE bronze work for the New York State monument, said to be the finest on the battlefield, has arrived, (excepting the top statue which is now being modeled,) and is being placed on the imposing structure.

ON Saturday morning, at his residence, in Hanover, Mr. Alex. J. Gitt, well known here in years past as one of the most courteous of the employees on the Hanover Branch service, died unexpectedly, after a short illness, in the 63d year of his age. He leaves a wife and one son.

THE Hanover Town Council has passed an ordinance prohibiting the slaughtering of animals for food as a business, within the borough limits, after April 1st. 1893.

Hartman, James O. Hoffman, Abraham Hoffman, John H. Dull, Levi Cromer, William Witmore, John Leech, Allen Yohe, Jacob Yohe, Albert Cole.

Senator Gerard C. Brown, of York county, spoke in a very interesting manner on the issues of the campaign. H. S. Stuart, Esq., of Carlisle, represented Hon. F. E. Beltzhoover, who was unable to be present, and in forcible and energetic style, stated the Democratic position on the questions of the day.

J. L. Williams, Esq., made a few remarks, touching the wool question.

Wm. McSherry, Jr., Esq., spoke in telling words on the pension question.

J. L. Butt, Esq., explained in a lucid and practical manner the way of voting the new ballot.

Hon. W. T. Ziegler, referred in an entertaining manner to the campaign issues.

MUMMASBURG.—An enthusiastic meeting was held in the school-house at Mummasburg on Friday evening, the 21st inst., and was called to order by Chas. D. Minter. The following officers were unanimously elected:

President, J. Andrew Kane.

Vice Presidents, Abraham Hart, John Hartman, Peter Schlosser, J. T. Hummer, Nicholas Miller, Peter Hart, Jacob Deardorff, Samuel Deardorff, Tobias Miller, Jno. Haverstock, Tobias Boyer, Geo. Beck, Jr., Aaron Wisler, David H. Deardorff and Anthony Deardorff.

Secretaries, Jas. W. Ball, W. B. Deardorff, Jacob Slonaker, Abraham Switzer, Amos Wolf, Tobias Hummer, Ambrose Dittenhafer, James Wisler, Elmer Miller and Harry Schuler.

Messrs. H. A. Elliott and W. E. Ziegler spoke in an entertaining manner on the issues of the campaign and the respective candidates. J. L. Williams, Esq., explained the method of voting the new ballot, after which an informal election was held. There were about thirty ballots cast and not one was incorrectly marked. The Democratic voters of Franklin evidently are fully prepared for election day.

SWEET HOME SCHOOL-HOUSE.—At Sweet Home public school-house, in Mountpleasant township, a rousing meeting of the Democratic Club of that township was held on Tuesday evening, Oct. 18th. The meeting was addressed by Messrs. F. Hilton, of Albany, N. Y., H. A. Elliott, W. E. Ziegler, and J. L. Williams, Esq., of Gettysburg, and A. H. Parr, Esq., of White Hall. The Sugartown drum corps was present and enlivened the meeting. The meeting adjourned to meet at Mt. Rock, Saturday evening, Oct. 22 Owing to the unfavorable weather the meeting adjourned after Dr. J. G. Watson had fully explained the mode of voting the new ticket until this evening.

At the Democratic Society headquarters in this place, on Friday evening, President George J. Benner and T. J. Stahle explained the mode of voting the new ballot.

DR. STUCKENBERGER'S LECTURES. — These lectures, which are being delivered at many prominent centers of education, on the Tendencies of Philosophical and Religious Thought in Germany, and are to be given in Gettysburg under the auspices of the Theological Seminary and the College, will be commenced in Brua Chapel on Wednesday, Oct. 26th, at 11 o'clock a. m., and at 7 o'clock p. m., and continued the succeeding days at the same hours until the conclusion of the course. The number of lectures and the order of special topics have not yet been fixed. The students of both institutions and the citizens generally, both ladies and gentlemen, are cordially invited to attend. The evening lectures will probably be followed by free colloquies or conferences on the subjects presented. Dr. Stuckenberger comes with the fullest information, and is a recognized master on the subjects of which he will speak. Our intelligent citizenship will give him large audiences.

MR. GEORGE I. COLE, of Buchanan Valley, son of Mr. John Cole, of Va., and nephew of Hon. Francis Cole, died unexpectedly to all, after an illness of nine days of typhoid pneumonia on the 22d of October, 1892, aged 39 years 2 months and 23 days. He leaves a wife and four children who are grief stricken at the sudden departure of a loving husband and father. They knew nothing but patience and loving kindness from him. He was good to all with whom he came in contact and all shared his geniality and hospitality. All classes, shared with him his bounties, the orphan, the rich and poor. There never were too many to be accommodated and none were ever turned away from his door. He was ever ready to lend a helping hand to his neighbors and friends. The grateful prayers of many school children of his community will ascend to the throne of God in his behalf, for he was a good friend of theirs and did all he could to further the cause of education around him. "In as much as ye have done it unto the least of these little ones, ye have done it unto Me," and he will have his sure reward. It will be hard to fill the vacancy, caused by Mr. Cole's death, in this community. His deeply grateful friend,

Columbus Celebrations.

Columbus Day was celebrated in the Public Schools of this place on Thursday afternoon. On account of limited room the programme was divided, the four lower floor schools holding their exercises first, with the following programme which was interspersed with singing: Words of Welcome, Bessie Drais; Recitations, Edith Hamilton, Edna Shields, Nellie Tate, Freddy Welty, Mary Hoffman, Annie Hollebaugh, Amanda Tawney, Elsie Reininger; Address by Prof. J. Dorsey Hunter, Principal of the schools, followed by remarks by Prof. P. M. Bikle, of Penns. College. The exercises by the schools on the upper floor followed, singing varying the programme, Harry Raffensperger read the President's proclamation, after which Prof. J. Dorsey Hunter explained the change of date of the 400th anniversary. "The Life of Columbus" was the subject of a paper by Miss Annie Welty, after which Miss Blanche Minnigh rendered selections from the World's Fair Ode, followed by recitation "Columbus," by Ray Dougherty, poetic sentiments suitable to the day by members of the schools and recitation, "The Morn of the Discovery," by Miss Mary Ogdan. Rev. Dr. Swartz and Rev. Brown who were among the large and appreciative audience who enjoyed the exercises, followed with brief remarks.

In the evening, Brua chapel was well filled to hear the exercises arranged by the two Literary Societies of Penns. College, Phrena. and Philo. Essays were read by Messrs. Gellert Alleman and F. M. Bortner, and orations delivered by Messrs. J. M. Guss and F. Hilton, all of which elicited generous applause. The Grand Army Band furnished music for the occasion.

At McSherrystown, on Wednesday, there was a large turn out and an imposing parade by the children of that place, Irishtown, and Conowago. Addresses were delivered by Rev. Fathers O'Leary, of Conowago, and Foin, of Hanover, also by Wm. McSherry, Jr., Esq., of this place. Music was furnished by the McSherrystown and Hanover Cornet Bands. The houses were beautifully decorated, the exercises taking place at the residence of Edward Shorb, Esq., who entertained in most hospitable style the speakers of the occasion.

Taneytown celebrated the event in fine style on Friday, W. C. Sheely, Esq., of this place, being orator of the day.

Potomac Synod.

The late annual meeting of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed church, which convened at Martinsburg, W. Va., on the 11th, and adjourned on the 19th of this month, was one of considerable interest. Besides the usual routine business, education, Sunday School work, Home and Foreign Missions, claimed the earnest consideration of all the members. These different subjects were thoroughly discussed, and large appropriations made to carry forward the educational and missionary work of the church. Especially important was the action looking to the establishment of a Seminary for girls south of Mason and Dixon's line. Western Maryland and the Valley of Virginia present a number of fine openings for this purpose. The Synod fully appreciated the opportunity offered, and appointed an efficient committee of clergymen and laymen to look for a site and receive bids. This committee will, doubtless, be able to report favorably at the next annual meeting, when, it is expected, more definite action will be taken.

The missionary work of the church is rapidly growing. The demands, both in the Home and Foreign fields, are more urgent than at any former period. About two years ago the needs of the large, and constantly increasing, Hungarian population in the mining and manufacturing centres of our country, were brought before the church by an action of General Synod. Many, perhaps a large majority of these people were members of the Reformed church in Hungary. The work was undertaken. Several Hungarian ministers responded to the call, of the church in the United States, and are now actively engaged in gathering the people into congregations and ministering to their spiritual wants. The church with-in the bounds of the Potomac Synod fully realizes the importance of the work, and is ready to do her share in making it a success.

The services were very harmonious from the beginning to the close. Hardly anything occurred to disturb the even flow of earnest and thoughtful consideration of the subjects which are of vital interest to the Reformed church, and also to the cause of true religion under whatever form it may be presented

The members were very hospitably entertained by the good people of Dr. Stuckenberger's congregation. A formal vote of thanks was tendered them, but that was but a poor expression of the kindly feeling which, we are sure, every member carried away with him.

The next annual meeting will begin on the first Tuesday in October, 1893, in Trinity Reformed church of this place.

The following interesting statistics were brought out during the session: In the Classes of the Synod there are 151 ministers, 301 congregations, 34,159 members, 20,453 baptized but unconfirmed members; 329 adults were baptized during the year and 1,918 infants; 1,912 members were received by confirmation and by renewal and certificate; 580 were dismissed; the names of 688 were erased; 888 deaths are recorded; there are 276 Sunday schools with 24 158 scholars; 52 young men are studying for the ministry; $20,632 were raised for benevolence, and $163,043 for general congregational purposes. There were $14,975 apportioned among the Classes of the Synod, and the money appropriated for benevolent purposes is $28,625

HOME WEDDING.—A very pretty home wedding occurred on Wednesday afternoon, at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Charlotte Mickley. The parties were Rev. J. C. Reighard, of Milroy, Pa., and Miss Annie B. Mickley, of this place. Rev. J. M. Mickley, of the Reformed church, now residing in McKnightstown, an uncle of the bride, performed the ceremony in the presence of a large company of relatives and friends. The bride wore cream serge trimmed with chiffon lace and satin ribbon, the groom customary black. At the conclusion of the ceremony all partook of elegant and abundant refreshments. Numerous and handsome presents attested the good wishes of their many friends. The bridal party left the same evening for their new home.

Arendtsville Items.

Owing to the dry weather destructive forest fires have been quite numerous the last few days along this stretch of mountain.

Rev. A. J. Koser, of Muncy, Pa., occupied the pulpit in the Lutheran church last Sunday.

Mr. Amos H. Bittinger, of Butler township, has second crop of well matured grapes

Mr John A. Knauss has raised the frame work of his new house. I. D. Knauss has enlarged his house and remodled it generally.

The Democratic meeting held here last Saturday evening was largely attended by both parties. P.

LITTLESTOWN is to have a canning factory on a large scale, papers having been signed whereby Charles Duttera, of that place, agrees to convey to B. F. Shriver & Co., for sixteen thousand dollars his farm, tannery and residence, the whole being one of the finest properties in this county. It comprises 104 acres and is amply supplied with fresh water. Possession will be given on April 1st, at which time Mr. Duttera will have a public sale of his stock, horses, wagons, tools and household goods. The Messrs. Schriver will erect a large canning factory on the property at the cost of from six to eight thousand dollars. It will be provided with all the modern facilities of such a factory and the owners will no doubt make it as successful as at Union Mills where they have been located for years past. They expect the farmers will put out corn, peas, beans, etc., to supply their demand.

DISPATCHES from small towns through out the Middle Atlantic and New England States say that Columbus Day was observed more generally than any event since the Centennial Celebration Day of 1876 The beautiful feature of the celebration was the part taken by the children of the various towns.

From Bendersville.

Tremendous forest fires were raging Saturday night and all day Sunday on Bear Mountain, about two miles west of town.

The public schools observed Columbus Day with exercises, including singing, speaking and parading the streets.

Chas. Rhodes has received information from the Pension department that his pension has been increased from $8 to $12 per month.

From Wenksville.

Columbus day was observed at Wenksville by appropriate exercises by the school. The color guard met the Veterans at the hall and escorted them to the school-house, where they gathered around the flag. After the flag was raised by the Veterans, the pupils saluted it, and then all sang "America My Country tis of thee," after which they entered the school-room for the remainder of the exercises.

We learn that F. L. Badeau, of Philadelphia, will prospect for mineral near this place in a few days.

Mountain fires are raging through this vicinity, doing great damage to the timber.

We learn that most of our farmers are through husking corn. E. L.

New Oxford Jottings.

Farmers are rushing in the old and new corn. One man brought upwards of 1,000 bushels of corn and wheat to Sheely's warehouse last week, and other farmers brought large lots of corn, wheat and hay to our warehouses. This no doubt was done to make room for crops not yet secured. There have been unloaded at the two warehouses last week not less than 5,000 bushels of grain, beside much hay. Most of the corn that came to town the past few weeks was in the ears.

We were glad to see that staunch old Methodist of Littlestown, in our town. He made a visit last week, the first time since the year 1845, when he attended the dedication of the old M. E church. He is hale and hearty for a man of his age, 82 years, viz: Mr. John Mellwaine.

There won't be much cutting at the coming election. It will be well if a single vote can be had. It is feared that many will vote wrong, get mixed up and loose their vote.

We are having delightful October weather, but what is needed is a good rain, and it would prove a blessing to the country.

On Friday, October 21st Columbus day was observed in this place by our school, marching from the school house, lead by the drum corps, to the Public Square, were the Declaration of Independence was read by the President's Proclamation was read by our Burgess, G. C. Sheely, at the close of the reading the Master of Ceremonies, Mr. Gilbert, announced, in accordance with the recommendation, and as a sign of our devotion to our country, the flag of the Nation was unfurled, and three cheers given. The Star Spangled banner was sung. Then the procession marched to Miller's Hall, where further exercises were had. The meeting was called to order by Prof. Sowers, when the Rev. C. T. Dunning, of the M. E. church offered prayer. Music was then singing, the ode, "Columbia's Banner," followed by words of welcome by Willie Sheely. Recitations and music followed. Addresses were delivered by Rev. Father Hemler of the Catholic church, Rev. Herbert of the Reformed church, and Rev. H. R. Clare of the Lutheran church and also a few words in reference to the day, by Rev. Dunning, winding up by Prof. Sowers, who thanked the audience for their attention, &c. The Catholic Parochial School of this place participated in the School's parade. The day was clear and cool, and the town gay with bunting in the hotel of John A. How many were the bitter cares
He felt when none but God could see.
Oh let me think of all he said
And all the kind ad ices he gave,
And let me do it now he's dead
And sleeping in his lonely grave.
