BIGLER 'PHONE OPERATOR HIT BY AUTOMOBILE

Struck by an automobile late Thursday evening as she walked home from the Biglerville exchange of the United Telephone company where she is employed as an operator, Mrs. Alice Reed, 64, wife of James Reed, Penn street, Biglerville, was a patient today at the Warner hospital.

Her condition was regarded as not serious, although she suffered a fracture of bones in the nose, contusions and abrasions of the body, right arm, right leg and head and neck. She was unconscious for a short time after being struck and was treated at the scene of the mishap by Dr. Raymond Oyler, Biglerville. The Adams county ambulance brought her to the hospital.

Paul C. Showers, 24, Biglerville R. 1, was the driver of the light sedan that struck Mrs. Reed, according to the report of the accident made by Officers K. Yemzow and A. S. Lashinsky, of the local substation of the state motor police.

The officers stated their investigation showed that Showers was driving south on South Main street which leads toward Gettysburg when Mrs. Reed attempted to cross from the east to the west side of the street. Showers said he was driving at between 20 and 25 miles an hour and did not notice Mrs. Reed until it was too late to avoid striking her.

Mrs. Reed was struck by the left front headlight of the machine and thrown to the roadway. Groceries she carried in her arms were scattered over the street.

No charges have been filed by the officers investigating the accident.

C. E. MEET TO BE HELD IN HERSHEY

The Pennsylvania Christian Endeavor union will celebrate its 50th anniversary in a Golden Jubilee convention at Hershey from Monday, July 11, to Saturday, July 16, inclusive.

This convention will climax the Golden Jubilee year which was opened at Easton last December, in the First Presbyterian church where the Pennsylvania union was organized.

More than 30 registrations already have been sent in from Adams county C. E. societies. Among those from the county who will spend the entire week at Hershey are Jean Thomas, Biglerville, social superintendent of the state organization, and Sara Mehning and Mary Ruth Rice, Gettysburg, who will be official delegates from the society at St. James Lutheran church. An attendance of 6,000 is expected at the convention.

The contract for supplying 20,000 pounds of fresh, white bread to the Adams county home during the year beginning July 11 was let Thursday by the county Institutional District board to Mrs. Elizabeth S. Hennig, proprietress of a York street bakery, at her bid of 4 1/2 cents per pound. The bread is to be delivered daily.

Mrs. Hennig, who held a similar contract under the former board of poor directors, was the only bidder on Thursday.

Members of the board reported that otherwise only routine business was transacted.

JURIST ORDERS JURY PROBE OF EARLE CHARGES

Harrisburg, July 8 (AP)—A grand jury investigation of the Earle administration—sought and fought for three months—was finally ordered today by Judge Paul N. Schaefer in Dauphin county court.

"Gentlemen, all I can say now is: There will be a grand jury investigation," the judge told newspapermen after a new series of conferences with District Attorney Carl B. Shelley and Attorney General Guy K. Bard.

"The formal order will be made on Monday," Judge Schaefer said. Judge Schaefer declined to elaborate on that statement immediately.

Before announcing his decision, Judge Schaefer was closeted separately for several hours with Shelley and Bard over material the district attorney has submitted to support his demand for the grand jury investigation of primary campaign charges aimed at Governor George H. Earle and 13 of his associates in the administration and Democratic party.

The last conferences were over "an important paper" the judge said Bard gave him.

"It's not conclusive, but it's important," Judge Schaefer said in referring the newest data he had received from Bard.

Judge Schaefer added he might find it necessary to confer with Bard again after seeing Shelley but held out the possibility of a decision at any time.

For several days the judge has been conferring with Shelley, who (Continued on Page Two)

G. A. R. Officers Tour Gettysburg Battlefield

Three G. A. R. officials who remained in Gettysburg after most of the Union and Confederate veterans had begun their journeys toward their homes visited the Gettysburg National park office and toured the battlefield Thursday afternoon as the special guests of the park service. The party was photographed at several stopping points of special interest by the park photographer.

The group of G. A. R. officials included the following: Dr. Overton H. Mennet, commander-in-chief, and Adjutant General Russell C. Martin, a former commander-in-chief, both of Los Angeles, and Miss Katharine R. A. Flood, secretary of the G. A. R.

Carolyn Abrams, Broadway, and her house guest, Barbara Curran, Baltimore, are spending the week at Camp Nawakwa.

Baltimorean Says 'Little' Round Top Named for Her Great-Grandfather

A great many Gettysburgians who have lived these many years under the delusion that Little Round Top was so named because of its proximity to a larger hill of similar shape are set aright about the matter by Mrs. Lily N. Neary, Baltimore, who calmly asserts that hill was named for her great-grandfather—Peter Little—the same person for whom Littleton was named.

To this bit of information Mrs. Neary adds that she strongly suspects that she and other heirs of that illustrious ancestor own by rights all of Littleton and a considerable part of the Adams county seat.

A letter to Clerk of the Courts Roy D. Renner, himself a property owner in Littleton whose title is threatened by Mrs. Neary's claims, seeks more information about this land in Gettysburg and Littleton.

Her forebear, Peter Little, had extensive land holdings in these parts "during war times," Mrs. Neary writes and she is investigating to see what claim Peter's descendants have to that property.

Mrs. Neary says she is a daughter of a Gettysburg native, Ephriam Hanaway Little, and is one of two survivors of a family of 10 children.

REPORTS NEED OF 'DEER' FENCES

Harrisburg, July 8 (AP)—Seth Gordon, executive director of the Game commission, said today that the increasing number of requests from farmers for deer proof fences provides "another graphic illustration that Pennsylvania's deer herd is becoming too large."

Gordon said that 14 miles of deer proof fence were erected in 1937 and 26 in 1938.

He said if the present rate of increase continues a $10,000 fund for the purpose will be exhausted "long before the beginning of the next fiscal year."

An effort by the Game commission to declare a special season last year on antlerless deer was stopped by the courts.

SEES NATION OF BRITISH RUSH ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL PIONEERS ARAB OUTBREAK

Marietta, Ohio, July 8 (AP)—President Roosevelt asserted today the nation is on a "mental migration," seeking to open new frontiers of social and economic security.

To the modern movement he pledged anew the leadership of his administration, and urged the people not to be "afraid to help each other."

"Let us never forget that government is ourselves and not an alien power over us," he said in an address commemorating the 150th anniversary of the creation of the northwest territory.

"I believe that the American people, not afraid of their own capacity to choose forward-looking representatives to run their government, want the same co-operative security and have the same courage to achieve it, in 1938 as in 1788."

"I am sure they know that we will always have a frontier of social problems—and that we must always move in to bring law and order to it."

"In that confidence I am pushing (Continued on Page Three)

BRITISH RUSH TO QUELL ARAB OUTBREAK

Jerusalem, July 8 (AP)—A bomb blast at Jerusalem's busy Jaffa gate today killed four Arabs and wounded 36 in a new outbreak of deadly terror which Great Britain is trying to crush with warships and troop reinforcements.

The bomb tore apart a bus in the crowded Arab bus station and a vegetable market in the shadow of David's tower.

The vehicle was filled with Arab country folk about to leave for Hebron. Its bloodstained and twisted framework was scattered in a roadway filled with panic-stricken humanity.

Troops of the Scottish Black Watch regiment with gleaming fixed bayonets cleared the square and started hunting the bomb thrower.

One Jew surrounded by an enraged Arab mob was rescued by police and hustled to safety.

About the same time a general strike broke out in Amman, in neighboring Transjordan. Workers struck in sympathy with Palestine Arabs, victims of bomb throwings at Haifa, Palestine's chief port.

Today's violence passed the casualties in nine days of riots and tension to 37 killed and 150 injured.

Map gives the location of Haifa (arrow), in Palestine, at which port the British battleship Repulse is stationed, after more than 100 persons have been killed or wounded in three days of rioting between Arabs and Jews.

The British battle cruiser Repulse, one of the world's biggest battleships, steamed into Haifa harbor to take the place of the 7,500-ton British cruiser, Emerald. The Repulse, which is armed with 8-inch guns, patrolled Haifa, into which Arabs were pouring for religious observances.

One Jewish store in Haifa was burned down. Three Jews were seriously injured when attacked by men wielding iron bars.

Here's Some Advice If You Want To Be Married 50 Years

Clifton Springs, N. Y., July 8 (AP)—So you want to live 50 years with your spouse? It's a cinch if you know the rules.

Take it from some 15 couples who have gone the route. They got together at a dinner in their honor Tuesday evening and explained.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac DeMay, who were married February 24, 1880, declared it's a game of "give and take. You have to bear and forebear."

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Grimsley (married February 25, 1885) chimed in with "bear and forebear" as their secret.

The H. Clay Wilsons (January 30, 1878) have 60 years of "mutual agreement" to offer.

According to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Taylor (January 16, 1863) it's a case of "neither being boss."

Mrs. Jerry Driscoll (February 11, 1895).

"We're both good natured," said Mr. and Mrs. John Rolan (December 23, 1886).

The John Loves (December 28, 1887) harked back to their marriage vows. "Stuck to the promise you made," they said.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Tate (December 19, 1887) simply "agree with one another."

"Love" was enough for the William Mathers (January 4, 1888), the J. A. Sanders (January 31, 1888) and the John Kelloggs (April 17, 1888).

"You make it yourself," said Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Haggerty (April 17, 1888).
