Front Royal, VA.,
Sept. 21, 1864.

3d Cavalry Division, Army of the Shenandoah.

At daybreak the main body of the division commanded by Brig.-Gen. James H. Wilson, crossed the Shenandoah and attacked the Confederates at Front Royal. At the same time two regiments, - the 1st Vt. and 1st N. H. - moved up the south fork, crossed at Kendrick's Ford and came in on the flank. The enemy was driven up the Luray Valley in confusion to Gooney Run, where the pursuit was taken up by Custer's brigade of the 1st division the next morning.

No casualties reported.
