L ENDOWMENT A HANDICAP

In eight years the Annie M. Warner hospital, of Gettysburg, in operation, 1,034 absolute charity patients have been at a cost of $44,031.89. Dr. J. McCrea Dickson, head of the surgical staff, said in an address at a joint meeting of the and Lions' clubs at the Eagle hotel, Monday evening.

LEAGUE MEETS NOVEMBER 7, 8

Plans For Annual Convention
Made By Women's League
Of Gettysburg College.

Approximately seventy-five members attended the autumn meeting of the Women's league of Gettysburg college which was held in the social rooms of the College Lutheran church Tuesday afternoon, with Mrs. C. Arthur Griest, the president, presiding.

Autumn flowers and foliage were used in profusion in decorating large bouquets of dahlias, asters, snap dragons and other seasonal flowers adding to the colorful effect.

Mrs. M. Hadwin Fischer conducted the devotionals, after which the regular business session was held.

Plan For Convention
Plans were made for the convention of the combined leagues of Gettysburg college which will be held here November 7 and 8. Mrs. John B. Zinn was appointed chairman of a hostess committee to act during the two days. Other members include Mrs. Edgar L. Dear-doeff, Mrs. Robert Fortenbaugh, Mrs. C. E. Bulheimer, Mrs. Thomas L. Cline, Mrs. Harry Rafensperger and Mrs. Francis Mason. Mrs. Charles F. Sanders, Mrs. Stewart Boughton and Mrs. Karl J. Grimm were elected delegates to the convention. Mrs. Clyde B. Stover and Miss Kate Gilbert will act as registrars and ushers for the two days will include Miss Anna Carns, Mrs. Eugene V. Bullitt, Miss Martha Neely and Miss Edith Dorsey.

Mrs. Lloyd Keefe arranged for the music for the meeting Monday, which consisted of two vocal duets by Mrs. Keefe and Mrs. Mark K. Eckert, accompanied by Mrs. S. F. Snyder. Mrs. Snyder also played two piano solos.

Hostesses For Occasion
Mrs. Charles F. Sanders and Mrs. J. Allen Deardorff conducted a period devoted to current events.

The hostesses for the day included the members of the executive committee. They were: Mrs. C. Arthur Griest, Mrs. Charles F. Sanders, Mrs. John B. Zinn, Mrs. G. F. Mitchell, Mrs. John W. McElhenry, Mrs. Lloyd C. Keefe, Mrs. Norman Storrick, Mrs. T. J. Winebrenner, Mrs. J. Allen Deardorff, Mrs. Milton R. Remmel and Mrs. C. E. Tawney.

detail of equipment.

"Our state and county aid has enabled us to exist and to continue to serve our people only by the most careful economy. Economy that allows of no program of upkeep or expansion.

"For eight years we have had no waiting room for friends of patients; no retiring room for bereaved relatives, and no special examining rooms where patients may be examined in private by their doctors. These must come, but not until our finances permit.

"We often hear that we are extravagant. Last year one of our nearby hospitals cared for seventeen more patients than we. Our expenses were $36,000 for the year. Our neighbor's expenses were $85,000. By comparison it cost them $50,000 to care for those seventeen patients.

"In 1921, our cost was $21,666.99; in 1928, $36,087.07.

"We have been poor, but faith in our cause has helped us to continue, and we have kept going in poverty, and worse than that. We have had to bear with untruthful local gossip, as all hospitals do.

"Our results are shown in but few ways.—In the stamp of approval of the American College of Surgeons, and of the Pennsylvania department of welfare. Besides the 80 per cent of pleased and happy patients of our community. I say 80 per cent because 20 per cent of hospital patients and their friends are never pleased in any community. Some have lost friends. Not nearly all are cured of their ailments, for we are not miracle workers, and a great many trying to evade just bills were asked to pay for services rendered. This last group constitutes our worst enemies.

"May I end with this plea to you who are interested in this community as your home.

"Personally visit us frequently. Get to know the hospital and its efforts made for you. Get the story at first hand, offer criticism, if you will, to help us, but get behind us and help us to provide for you and yours and the needy of the county a hospital, which, as in the past eight years, will be ready 24 hours a day and 365 days a year to give you the best that can be found. Only your personal and financial aid will accomplish results.

"Other hospitals receive annual subscriptions from their people. We need, but have never received, such help from those who depend upon us to provide for their health and safety.

"Such an annual dollar upward subscription would in a few years wipe out our debt, free the endowment income and enable us to gradually expand to meet the demands of the service."

W. C. T. U. MEETING
The St. Courageous W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. Milton Remmel Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

FORMER LOCAL RESIDENT DIES IN AUTO CRASH

Arthur Cullison, 31,
Fatally Injured
When Street Car Hits Auto.

BURIAL IN TOWN

Two men, one of them Arthur Cullison, 31, a native of Gettysburg, were fatally injured and a third was seriously hurt when the automobile in which they were riding upset and was struck by a trolley car in Harrisburg, late Tuesday afternoon.

Cullison, a resident of Harrisburg, died a short time after being admitted to the Polyclinic hospital. He suffered a fractured skull.

Stanley Miller, 24, also of Harrisburg, died at the same hospital early this morning. His back was broken and he suffered lacerations about the head and a puncture wound of the ankle.

Lester Clugston, 24, of Harrisburg, the third man in the automobile, is a patient in the hospital suffering a possible fracture of the skull.

The automobile in which the three young men were riding was going north on Sixth street, according to W. J. Eisenhower, of Harrisburg, who witnessed the accident. He said the driver of the car turned the machine sharply to the left to avoid hitting a truck that was backed against the east curb in Sixth street.

The car, which was a small roadster, upset, turned over twice and came to rest in the path of a southbound street car which tossed the automobile against the west curb.

Eisenhower said he helped to remove one of the men from under the wrecked machine. The injured were taken to the hospital by the fire department and the hospital ambulances.

Describes Accident
The accident occurred while the automobile, running in the northbound street car track, was attempting to pass other machines, according to an official of the Harrisburg Railways company. The driver of the machine apparently saw the street car approaching and swerved the machine to the right. The automobile upset in front of the street car, which was brought to a stop within eighteen feet by Motorman Landis Johnson.

The automobile in which the trio was riding was rented by Clugston.

Body Brought Here
Cullison was a son of the late George W. Cullison and Mrs. Ella Cullison, of Harrisburg. He was unmarried, and is survived by his mother, three sisters, Mrs. C. B. Hoffman, Miss Treva B. Cullison and Miss Ruth B. Cullison, of Harrisburg, and six brothers, Howard C. Cullison, Gettysburg; Asa C. Cullison, Buffalo, New York; Hubert C. Cullison, Carlisle; Mervin W. Cullison, Dorsey T. ## SAVE FOOD FOR ALL WILD BIRDS

Protection Of Bittersweet
Shrubs Is Urged As Food
For State Birds.

Due to the scarcity of all foods for wild birds and game, protection of bittersweet shrubs is more important than usually. W. Gard Conklin, chief of the bureau of lands and refuges, said today.

Conklin appealed to lovers of wild life to allow the bittersweet berries to remain in their natural environment rather than use them for alleged adornment of mantles and walls.

Attaches of the game commission say the bittersweet berries are an important item in wild life food because they do not fall from the vines until late in the winter and are thus accessible during heavy snowstorms.

Officials of the department of forests and waters also have asked citizens of the state to forego the usual custom of tearing the shrubs from the ground and bearing them to city homes.

Following the lead of some city florists even "hot dog" stands are now offering bittersweet for sale permitting supposed nature lovers to obtain it without the exertion of leaving an automobile.

Those interested agree that unless there is a decreasing demand for the bittersweet berries for use as decoration it will soon be exterminated in the state.

The game commission's program for feeding the wild life of the state already is under way. Because the transportation of domestic grains to remote points where it will be found by the wild things of the woods is a difficult problem officials are anxious to conserve all natural food supplies.

FIREMEN SEEK ANNUAL PICNIC GROUNDS SITE

Aumen Heads County
Committee To Locate
Permanent Spot
For Affair.

PICNIC NETS $300.00

A committee of eighteen members was appointed at a quarterly meeting of the Adams county firemen's association at New Oxford, Monday evening, to consider the purchase or leasing of a permanent picnic grounds for the association. This committee, of which James B. Aumen, of Gettysburg, is chairman, is to report to the association at the next quarterly meeting.

The cost of preparing a picnic grounds each year in connection with the annual meeting of the county association would, it is believed, soon pay for the purchase or leasing of a permanent location, where substantial and necessary buildings could be erected. The over-head expenses of preparing new grounds each year have been estimated at between $500 and $600.

Selection of a permanent site would not interfere with the county association holding its annual meetings among the seventeen communities in the county represented in the organization, it was stated.

Besides Mr. Aumen on the committee are Dr. T. C. Miller, Cecil Stover, Dennis Asper, William L. Baumgardner, E. L. Golden, Emory Funt, C. A. Bream, S. D. Kling, M. F. Stoner, G. A. McClellan, Charles Pfeiffer, James Strausbaugh, S. F. Collins, P. J. Smith, J. H. Plymire, M. E. Crouse and C. M. Boyer.

I. S. Brumgard, of Littlestown, new president of the county association, presided at the meeting. The Rev. George E. Sheffer, of New Oxford, welcomed the firemen, and President Brumgard responded.

The picnic committee reported net proceeds of $300, including the annual book receipts. The president appointed a committee comprising H. C. Bucher, D. C. Stallsmith and Guy Staub to audit the accounts of the picnic and book committee.

The next meeting of the county association will be held in Gettysburg the first Monday in January, 1930. After the meeting, which was attended by more than 100 firemen, refreshments were served, during which the Gable family orchestra, of New Oxford, played.
