MARRIAGES

Miller—Little
Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Little, of Gettysburg, announce the engagement of their daughter, Betty Jean, to S. Sgt. Frank R. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver M. Miller, Biglerville R. 1.

Sergeant Miller entered the service July 1, 1942, and took basic training at Camp Forrest, Tenn. He went overseas in June of last year and was wounded in France, September 12, 1944. He returned to the States October 28, 1944, and was admitted to the Orle General hospital where he remains a patient. No date has been set for the wedding.

Jackson—Daley
The double ring ceremony of the Lutheran church was used at the marriage at the home of the bride's parents at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon of Miss Elizabeth Trimmer Daley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde F. Daley, Gettysburg, and Webster Miner Jackson, Norwood R. 1. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Ralph R. Gresh, pastor of St. James Lutheran church.

Smith—Dayhoff
Miss Mildred L. Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Smith, Gettysburg, and Kenneth J. Dayhoff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Dayhoff, Gettysburg R. 5, were united in marriage in a candlelight service Saturday evening at 7 o'clock in St. James Lutheran church, Gettysburg.

The pastor, the Rev. Dr. Ralph R. Gresh, performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and was attired in a white satin gown of princess style with a square neckline and fingertip veil and a double strand of pearls. She carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums and red rose buds.

Miss Nina Fissel, Gettysburg R. 1, was maid of honor and wore a blue gown. Her bouquet was of yellow 'mums and pompons. The bride's sister, Miss Phylline Smith, was bridesmaid. She wore pink and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

The groom was attended by Pvt. Charles W. Smith, a brother of the bride. The ushers were Theron Dayhoff and Harold Smith.

A reception was held at the bride's home after the ceremony.

The bride is a graduate of Gettysburg high school in the class of 1942. The couple is residing at the home of the bridegroom's parents.
