

From the Universalist.

SWEAR NOT.

"Swear not at all; neither by Heaven, for it is God's throne; nor by Earth, for it is his footstool."

O! swear not by thy God, vain man!
Thy mightiest strength is frail;
Thy longest life is but a span,
A brief, a mournful tale:
But from thy lips be praises heard,
Not oaths or songs profane;
Remember He hath said the word,
"Take not my name in vain."

And swear not by the Holy Heaven!
It is the Almighty's throne,
Nor by the burning stars of even,
For they are all his own;
Rather arise at early day,
Look on the glorious sun,
Swear not; but bow thee down and pray
To Him, the Holy One.

Swear not by Earth; the beautiful Earth,
The footstool of his power!
He gave its every glory birth
In the primeval hour.
List to the loud rebukes that roll
From ocean, earth, and air:
Let the deep murmur move thy soul
To worship—not to swear.

O! swear not by that blessed One,
Whom God the Father gave,
His well beloved and only Son,
A world from sin to save:
But weep that thou so oft hast bent,
False deities before,
Turn to thy Saviour and repent,
Depart and sin no more.

And swear not by thine own weak name!
For thou art but a slave
Of pain and sorrow, sin and shame,
Of glory and the grave:
Thy boasted body is but clay,
Born of the dust you tread;
And soon a swift approaching day
Shall lay thee with the dead.

In the Fourteenth District, composed of the township of Reading, at the public school-house in the town of Hampton.

AT WHICH TIME AND PLACES WILL BE ELECTED

One Member of the Senate of Pennsylvania, to represent the District composed of the Counties of Adams and York;

Two Representatives in the State Legislature, for the County of Adams:

One County Commissioner:

One Auditor of Public Accounts:

One Director of the Poor, & House of Employment of the County of Adams:

Two Coroners; and

Two Sheriffs.

And in and by the said Act, it is directed, that the INPECTORS of the said General Election shall be chosen by ballot on the Friday next preceding the first Tuesday in October, being the 27th day of Sept. next, and the Election for such Inspectors shall be held in such places in each township, ward or district, as is appointed by law, for that purpose, by the respective Constables, (who are required at least to give one week's notice of such an Election) assisted by two qualified citizens, chosen by such citizens qualified to vote, as shall then be present. And it is also in and by said Act required, that the Agent and Inspectors be at the places of their District, on the day of the General Election aforesaid, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to do and perform the several duties required and enjoined on them in & by the same Act.

And it is further directed in and by the Act of the General Assembly of this State aforesaid, passed the 17th day of March, 1806, aforesaid, that one of the JUDGES of each of the different Districts as aforesaid, who shall have the charge of the certificate of the number of votes which shall have been given for each Candidate for the different Offices then and there voted for at their respective Districts, shall meet on the 3d day after the Election, which will be on Friday the 11th day of October aforesaid, at the Court-house in the borough of Gettysburg, then and there to make a fair statement and certificate of the number of votes which shall have been given at the different Districts in the County of Adams, for any person or persons for the different Offices aforesaid, &c.

And, by a law passed 2d April, 1821, it is made the duty of the Sheriff to give Public Notice of the provisions of said law.

The following are extracts:—

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the several qualified electors who shall vote at any General or Special Election within this Commonwealth, shall give to the Inspectors of such Elections, separate Tickets for each office or station voted for, which Tickets shall contain no more than the proper number of names; but no Ticket shall be rejected by the Judges of the Election, in counting off the votes, should the same contain fewer names than the proper number, those for Sheriffs and Coroners excepted.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of the Sheriff or Coroner, as the case may be, of each & every County within this Commonwealth, to give Public Notice, at the same time, and in the same manner, and under the same penalty, that he is now required to give notice of any General or Special Election—that any person who shall hold any Office or appointment of profit or trust under the Government of the U. States, whether a commissioned officer, or otherwise, a subordinate officer or agent, who is or shall be employed under the Legislative, Executive, or Judiciary Departments of the United States, and also that every member of Congress, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the same time, the office or appointment of Judge, Inspector, or Clerk of any Election within the State.
