

New Oxford Item.

VOL. 40.

NEW OXFORD, PA., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1918.

NO. 36.

Personal.

Dr. Geo. H. Lau, of Detroit, Mich., a former resident of New Oxford, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hezekiah Lau, spent the past week visiting relatives and friends in Adams and York counties.

Jesse Sheaffer, of Guam, Philippine Islands, is spending a short furlough at York Springs, his former home. Corporal Sheaffer has been in the regular army service for the past twelve years and recently re-enlisted.

Misses Viola and Mary Stambaugh, of Mummansburg, spent several days with relatives and friends at this place.

John Winne and wife, of New Brunswick, N. J., have returned to their home after visiting Mrs. Winne's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Buckminster, Lincoln Way, East.

Charles E. Wiest, of Ashland, Ohio, spent a few days with his sisters, Mrs. G. A. Miller, of Hanover street, and Mrs. J. A. Foote, of West High street, last week. Mr. Wiest also visited his mother, Mrs. Margaret Wiest, who makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. N. R. Bailey, at Dillsburg. The mother, who is 90 years of age, is quite active and enjoys good health.

Mrs. Ida Grogg and daughter, Mrs. St. Clair, left East Berlin to spend a few months with friends at Gettysburg, Altoona, and other places.

Harry J. Albert, who has been spending several months with his mother Mrs. Jesse Albert, now 90 years old, at her home in Hampton, has returned to Philadelphia, where he was formerly employed.

Mrs. Daniel Withers, of Kingsdale, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Withers, Lewes, Delaware, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Withers, Carlisle street.

Mrs. Edw. Chronister and two children, Mrs. Mary Miller, and Mrs. E. R. Chronister, of near Greenridgeschoolhouse, spent Tuesday in York.

Joseph H. Himes, of Canton, Ohio, who spent the past week at the home of his mother, Mrs. Martha Himes, Lincoln Way East, left for his home on Sunday evening.

Ezra Brown, who has been spending some months in Kansas, returned to his home in East Berlin, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Birely, Carlisle street, left yesterday morning on a three weeks' visit to friends at Florence S. C., and Atlanta, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. George Otto and Vernon Wagner, Boiling Springs, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. David Slentz, Carlisle street.

Forger of $110 Check Caught.

Harry Small, of Midway, who forged a check for $110 at 10 o'clock on Monday morning at the Peoples Bank, Hanover, in the name of his sister Miss Jane, was caught the same day at 3:30 p. m. at Harrisburg, enroute to Pottsville where he intended to marry Miss Violet Long. The money was recovered and returned to the Bank on Tuesday morning. Small is awaiting trial at the York jail, having been transferred from the Harrisburg jail where he spent Monday night. Small and Miss Long served time several months ago in the Gettysburg jail.

Hospital Patients.

Harry Weller, Midway, was taken to the State sanitarium at Mont Alto for treatment Friday morning.

David Martin, an influenza patient, of McSherrystown, was removed to the York hospital on Thursday.

Mrs. Adaline Stoner, of Fairfield, was taken to the York hospital on Thursday, where she underwent a surgical operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Curvin Leese of Hanover, left Monday morning for Philadelphia, where Mrs. Leese will undergo an operation for internal trouble, at the Homeopathic Hospital for Women in that city.

Stork News.

Mrs. Sarah Bittinger, widow of the late John Bittinger, of Littlestown, a son.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Diehl, of Guileus Station, a son.

On November 28th to Mr. and Mrs. David C. Diehl, of Philadelphia, a daughter, Helen Philomena. The father is a son of D. M. Diehl, of Mt. Pleasant township, and the mother a daughter of Geo. Knab, recently of the Mt. Pleasant Fruit Farm.

Horse Breaks Leg.

While a son of the Rev. Mr. Stauffer, of New Chester, was driving the family horse on the road near Sharrer's mill, on Tuesday afternoon, the animal stumbled and fell, breaking one of its front legs. It was necessary to kill the animal to relieve it from suffering.

Sixteen of the 221 public school teachers of Adams County were ill with the influenza, but all the others were present at the sixty-fourth annual sessions of the institute, held last week. County Superintendent H. M. Roth has been confined to bed at his home in Gettysburg for the past two weeks suffering from an attack of indigestion and the institute was without his presence.

Deaths.

Charles F. Himes, Ph. D., of Carlisle, died at Johns Hopkins hospital, Baltimore, at 7 o'clock on Friday evening. He was aged about 80 years. Prof. Himes was a native of New Oxford, a son of the late Wm. D. and Magdalen Lanus Himes. For many years he was a professor of science and mathematics in Dickinson College, Carlisle, and was for a time a professor in the Female Seminary, Baltimore, and in Troy University, N. Y., after which he went to Europe, and as a pupil attended the university at Giezen, Germany, for 18 months. He was the author of numerous text books, and was authority on photographic science. He was one of a number appointed by the government to photograph an eclipse of the sun. His wife, who was Mary E. Murray, died about two years ago. He is survived by two daughters; one sister, Mrs. Helen Keith, and one brother, H. O. Himes, both of Gettysburg.

Miss Susan C. Himes, who was seized with an attack of apoplexy on Thanksgiving evening, died at her home, corner Lincoln Way and Bolton street, at 6 o'clock on Friday evening. During the eight days of her illness she was only partially conscious for a short time the forepart of the week. Miss Himes was born at Margareta Furnace, Lancaster County, but came to New Oxford with her parents, the late Thomas and Susan Himes, about 50 years ago. She was aged 78 years, 1 month and 4 days. She was the last member of her family, her four brothers all having preceded her in death. One nephew and two nieces survive. The funeral was held from her late home at 2 o'clock on Monday afternoon conducted by the Rev. F. H. Brunstetter, pastor of the Methodist church. Interment was made in New Oxford cemetery.

Clarence W. Cleaver, aged 28 years, 1 month and 8 days, died at his home on East High street, at 5 o'clock on Monday morning. The deceased spent a few days on a deer hunt on the mountains where he contracted influenza which terminated in pneumonia. He was brought to his home on Friday evening in a serious condition and death resulted as above stated. He is survived by his wife, who was a Miss Huff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Huff, of New Chester, and three small children. Also his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Cleaver, of Reading township; one sister, Edna Mae Cleaver, at home, and one brother, Harry C. Cleaver, of the Aero Squadron, now in France. The funeral will be held this Wednesday afternoon. Interment in Reformed cemetery at New Chester.

Mrs. Cleaver and one of the children are sick with the influenza.

After a few days illness from pneumonia following an attack of influenza, John H. Ebrehart died at his home in Reading township, near Hampton, at 5 o'clock on Tuesday morning, aged 27 years and 20 days. Deceased was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ebrehart, of Hanover, formerly of Round Hill. He is survived by his wife, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Rickrode, of Hampton, and two children, one an infant 4 days old; also his parents and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Mabel Critchmer and Mrs. Ella Miller, of Hagerstown; Paul Ebrehart, Mrs. Lark Shae, Mrs. Bessie Chronister, all of Hanover, and Miss Bernice Ebrehart, at home. The deceased was a grandson of Mrs. Mary Ebrehart, of this place. The funeral will be held from his late home at 2 o'clock p. m. on Friday. Interment will be made in Hampton cemetery.

Word was received Friday night by O. P. House, of Bendersville, of the death of his brother, M. Fillmore House, in Ponchartroula, La. Mr. House was a son of the late Oliver and Catherine House and left Bendersville about thirty years ago. He was never married and leaves a number of brothers and sisters.

Mrs. Carrie E. Shetter, wife of Herper Shetter, died Sunday morning about 4 o'clock at her residence in York. Death was due to pneumonia and followed a brief illness. She was 25 years old. Besides her husband, she is survived by three small children, and several brothers and sisters. She was a daughter of the late Josephus Wolf, a former well known resident of East Berlin. The husband is a son of butcher Robt Shetter, also of East Berlin. Interment was made in the East Berlin cemetery on Tuesday morning.

Ross, the 8 year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chronister, of Hampton, died at 10 a. m. on Saturday from a complication of diseases. Besides his parents he leaves a number of brothers and sisters. Interment was made in the Hampton cemetery on Monday morning.

Mrs. Laura Bishop, wife of Frank Bishop, died on Saturday morning a 2 o'clock in the Harrisburg hospital after a two days illness from pneumonia. Mrs. Bishop was formerly Miss Laura Raffensperger, of Gettysburg. Besides her husband she leaves her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Raffensperger, and the following brothers and sisters: Harry Raffensperger, of Elizabeth, N. J.; James, of Collingswood, N. J.; Mrs. Jonas Routsong, of Bendersville; Mrs. P. B. Kroust, of Narberth; Miss Stella, of Washington, D. C., and Misses Katie and Lottie Raffensperger, at home.

Mrs. Lizzie May Yohe died at her home in Latimore township, on Sunday morning after a few days' illness from influenza, aged 23 years, 6 months and 28 days. She leaves her husband, Herbert Yohe, and one son, John Yohe, aged 2 years; also her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Cromer, of Dillsburg, and a number of brothers and sisters, all of Dillsburg.

Following a sickness of nine days from pneumonia and typhoid fever, brought on by an attack of influenza, Martin F. Keagy died on Sunday evening at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Keagy, Conewago township, near McSherrystown. He was aged 23 years, 10 months and 20 days. He is survived by his parents and the following brothers and sisters, Effie, Bertha, Lottie, John and Grant Keagy, at home.

Marguerite Hille, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. George Hille, of Hanover, died Thursday evening from a complication of diseases, age 3 years and 3 months.

Mrs. Mary Orner, widow of John Orner (died at her home in Carlisle Saturday, aged 82 years, 9 months and 26 days. The family formerly lived in Adams county.

Miss Anna May Clouser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Clouser, died at her home near Littlestown, on Monday evening. Death was caused by influenza and complications. She was aged 19 years, 11 months and 19 days.

Mrs. John Fahey, for some years housekeeper at the rectory of St. Ignatius church, Buchanan Valley, died at her home in New York, on Monday.

Eugene Walter, the 8-weeks-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Krees, of Littlestown, died last Thursday evening from spasms.

Reuben Wiley, of East Berlin, died on Thursday night at 9 o'clock, from pneumonia, following an attack of influenza. He was 48 years old. He is survived by his wife and the following sisters: Mrs. Lizzie Owens, Mrs. Joseph Bowser, Mrs. James Lehman, all of York; Mrs. Nell Keeney, of near East Berlin; Mrs. Daniel Mummert and Mrs. Ella Wagner, of East Berlin, and Mrs. Emma Rohrbach, of Hanover. The funeral was held on Sunday at 2 p. m. Interment being made in Mummert's meeting house cemetery.

Charles Plank, 28 years old, died at his home in York on Friday morning at 3:30 o'clock, from influenza. He had been sick for several days, but continued working Thursday morning he was taken home from the plant of the American Chain company an hour after he started work. He lapsed into unconsciousness, in which state he remained until his death. Besides his wife, Mrs. Ida Plank, he is survived by one daughter, Mary Plank; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Plank, and several sisters and brothers, residing in Adams County.

Mrs. Viola Hull, wife of Irvin P. Hull, of Hanover, died at noon on Thursday from pneumonia, aged 34 years. She was the only daughter of Mrs. Annie Eichelberger, of Littlestown, and ten years ago was married to Irvin P. Hull, of Hanover. Besides her mother and her husband, she is survived by two children, Robert E. and Mary Elizabeth Hull.

Charles M. Shorb, of Buchmau Valley, died in Philadelphia on Tuesday aged 40 years. He had been working in that city for some time. He leaves his mother, Mrs. Annie Rollman Shorb. He also leaves four sisters.

Frank Jacobs died Monday night from influenza at his home in Hanover, aged 23 years. He is survived by his wife, three children, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Jacobs, and the following brothers and sisters: Solomon, Elsie, Lizzie and Mary Jacobs of Hanover; Emanuel Jacobs and Mrs. George Adams, of Littlestown.

Gervas, 3 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gervas Dick, who died at their home in York Saturday, of whooping cough, was interred in Paradise Catholic cemetery, Monday forenoon. Mrs. Dick is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kinneman of Abbottstown.

Andrew P. Helweg, died Tuesday afternoon at the family residence. Death was due to paralysis. Five years ago Mr. Helweg was stricken with paralysis in Adams

Marriages.

On November 29, Robert E. Wampler, of Biglerville, and Miss Ruth M. Cooley, of Brysonia, were married by Rev. J. H. Webb.

William J. Abell, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Abell, of near Gettysburg, and Miss Myrtle Servatius, were married on November 30th, at Waco, Texas.

Andrew Sheely and Elizabeth M. Diehl, both of Cashtown, were married on November 30th, at Welsh Run, by the Rev. John M. Diehl, brother of the bride.

Miss Hattie E. Small, daughter of Mrs. Serena Small, and John F. Zinn, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Zinn, both of Berwick township near Bittingers Station, were married on Thursday evening. The ceremony was performed at Blooming Grove, by the Rev. G. L. Reeser. Mr. and Mrs. Zinn went to housekeeping in a newly furnished house in Berwick township.

Thursday evening, December 5th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Myers Hamilton Township, near Hampton, their daughter, Miss Alice Myers, was united in marriage to George Taughinbaugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Taughinbaugh, of Straban Township. The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. G. Stauffer. The wedding march was played by Miss Vivian Stambaugh, and the attendants were Miss Minnie Myers, sister of the bride and Charles Stough. A reception and supper followed the ceremony.

Miss Clair Stair, of near Two Taverns, and J. Clair Beiler, of near Gettysburg, were married on November 28th, at Littlestown, by the Rev. I. M. Lau. They will go to housekeeping on the Jacob Snyder farm near Two Taverns.

Fred I. Hubbard and Miss Hulda A. Hess, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Hess, of Gettysburg, were married Friday evening, by Rev. P. R. Pontius.

S. A. Burhman, of Rouzerville, and Miss Daisy Griffin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Griffin, of near Gettysburg, were married November 27th, by Rev. Mr. Wrightson, in Frederick.

Real Estate Sales.

County Commissioner E. C. Keefer, of York Springs, purchased the farm known as the Emanuel Smith place in Huntingtown township from John Hays, of Carlisle, the own r, at private terms. The farm containing 175 acres.

Maurice Bittinger, of near Hanover, has purchased the former Strubbing property in that place, from the heirs of that estate, and has taken possession of same.

The real and personal property of John S. Lillich, deceased, was sold at public sale, Saturday. The residence located just east of Abbotstown on the Lincoln Highway, was purchased by Jeremiah Nace for $1930 00.

The property known as Blue Gables and the Middleburg factory occupied by the Middleburg Manufacturing company owned by S. L. Johns was sold Saturday to Blain Johns and Herbert Hershey.

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas the hand of Providence has removed our beloved sister, Mrs. Clara Sheely, from the scene of her earthly labors and from our society, and in view of loss we have sustained by the death of our friend and sister, and of the still greater loss sustained by those who were nearest and dearest to her. Be it

Resolved: that we deeply mourn her untimely departure and sincerely regret the loss of her faithful service as a co-laborer in our church and Mite Society, taking refuge in the thought however, that after having ended her earthly strife she has at last found the Church triumphant.

Resolved: That we tender our earnest and heartfelt sympathies to the bereaved family and commend them for consolation to Him who doeth all things well.

Resolved: That the above resolution be published in the New Oxford Item and that a copy be placed in the minutes of the Society, and also a copy be sent to the family of the deceased.

Mrs. J. C. Birely, Mrs. Margaret Frazier, } Com. Mrs. Herbert Sheets, }
November 22, 1918.

county while traveling for the H. W. Miller company, wholesale grocers, Hanover, and he has been helpless ever since. Early Sunday morning he was stricken for the second time. He was aged 53 years, one month and nine days.

Mrs. George Sambaugh, died very suddenly at her home in Reading township, between East Berlin and Bermudian, at 11 o'clock on Tuesday night from neuralgia of the heart; aged about 76 years. Besides her husband she leaves two sons and two daughters; also one sister, Mrs. Porters, of Cumberland county.

Bugle Notes.

Sergeant John Maurice Small returned last Tuesday from California where he was honorably discharged after eight years service in the Marine Corps. Sergeant Small, a son of the late Wm. H. Small, of Edgemoor, enlisted eight years ago in Philadelphia and for nearly the whole enlistment did service with the Asiatic Squadron and was stationed in the Philippines and China. He is very much impressed with the service and is undecided whether to re-enlist or not. For the present he will visit his brother, Walter Small and family, in Gettysburg.

Private Claude Harner, Littlestown, has been officially reported wounded in action. Word to this effect was received by his mother, Mrs. Martha Harner. The telegram stated that he was slightly wounded while in action on or about October 19. John Dougherty, of McSherrystown, received a letter from his son, Harry Dougherty, member of the 316th Infantry, which was written the day after the armistice was signed. He stated he was in the base hospital for six weeks but expected to join his company the following day.

A. Z. Leib, of near East Berlin, received a letter from his son Corporal Charles Leib, dated November 11th. In it he states that he had been at the front for weeks. At the time of writing he was in a hospital, sick with influenza.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter C. Stock, of Gettysburg, received word that their son, Paul E. Stock, had been severely wounded in action on November 3d. Official notification to this effect was sent by the War Department to his wife at Pittsburgh.

Pvt. Robert G. Decker of Camp Greene, Charlotte, N. C. formerly of Hampton, writes that he is just convalescing from a long siege of the "flu" and pneumonia.

William Paul, residing on a farm about 8 miles south of Gettysburg, has received word that his son, Howard Paul, was seriously wounded in action on October 29th. He was selected by the Adams County board and trained at Camp Meade, going across with the 79th Division early in the summer.

Mrs. Walter Courtney, of Hanover, received a letter from her husband, Sergt. Courtney, overseas, stating that he is in the hospital, the result of being gassed the latter part of October.

As far as is known only six of the boys from McSherrystown who are serving in the United States Army out of the 88 men who were called to the colors are confined to hospitals from sickness or injuries sustained. Letters from the boys state they are improving and some have rejoined their companies. The boys are Oscar Keefer, Joseph Beckman, Clarence Wireman, Harry Dougherty and Guy and Preston Weaver.

Charles S. Diller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaiah Diller, Lincoln Way, East, returned home on Thursday. He entered the service Feb. 7, 1918, at Gettysburg.

John Edward Neely, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Neely, a member of the S. A. T. C., stationed at the University of Pittsburgh, has been discharged from the service.

Elect. Sgt. Raymond A. Stock, instructor in power, steam engines and searchlights, of the Coast Artillery School, at Fortress Monroe, department of enlisted specialists, is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Stock, Gettysburg. The government having closed the school, he received his discharge several days ago.

The name of Sterling Morelock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Addison S. Morelock, of Hanover, who was wounded in the hip by a machine gun bullet, October 5, appears on Monday's casualty list.

The name of James Bollinger, of Hanover, appeared in Sunday's casualty list, as wounded.

Four more Hanover soldiers have won honorable discharges from the United States army. They are Pierre Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Smith, Robert Sourber son of Mrs. Annie Sourber, John F. Brady and W. H. Boyer.

Friday morning's casualty list contains the name of Paul Kahlbaugh, of Hanover, as missing in action.

Joseph Hanson Miller, a member of the S. A. T. C., who was stationed at State College Technical school, has been discharged from duty and is expected to return home this Thursday. Joseph Hanson was employed in the Item Office when he entered the service.

W. C. King, of Hunterstown, has returned from Camp Lee where he was mustered out of the army.

Lieut. John W. Myers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. D. Myers, of Hamilton town-

The Sick.

Albert Wagaman, of Square Corner, who was shot in the leg by his son while hunting deer on the South Mountains, is improving under the care of Dr. A. C. Rice.

Mrs. Annie C. Spangler, of near White Hall, who has been confined to bed suffering from influenza, is able to sit up. Benjamin and Irvin Spangler, her two sons, who are also suffering from influenza, are improving.

Roy Chronister, of near Abbottstown; is a sufferer from influenza.

Misses Mary Gochenour and Dora Masermer, two of Latimore township's public school teachers, are both confined to their homes by the "flu".

Mrs. R. M. Straley, son and daughter, of Center Square, have contracted influenza.

Miss Harriet Cook, of Hanover street clerk in the local postoffice, is confined to her home with influenza.

John Hockensmith and seven children, of Berlin Junction, are sick with influenza.

Cashier Jas. W. Barnitz, of the F. & M. Bank, who has been confined to his home on Hanover street with the "flu" for the past ten days, is improving.

Prof. C. E. Tawny, principal of the New Oxford public schools, has contracted influenza and is confined to his home at Guileus. Consequently the local High School is closed for an indefinite period.

Jonas H. Wolf, wife and four children, of near Hampton, who are influenza patients are reported as improving. Mrs. Garber, mother of Mrs. Wolf, who had been caring for the family, was also taken seriously sick, and her son, William Garber, stationed at Camp Lee, Va., was telegraphed for and arrived home the forepart of the week.

Miss Frances Hollinger, who is teaching school in Hamberg, Berks county, while attending County Institute, took sick and returned to her home in Abbottstown on Wednesday. She is under the care of her uncle, Dr. Hollinger, and is improving.

Stuart Hafer, young son of Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Hafer, of Abbottstown, is a sufferer with diphtheria.

George Klingel Jr., son of Mrs. Grace Klingel, operator at the local C. V. Telephone exchange, who has been critically ill with pneumonia for the past week, is now reported as improving.

G. W. Sadler, keeper of the New Oxford cemetery, with his wife and daughter, are confined to the house with the "flu".

Miss Bessie Bushman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Bushman, who recently moved from Hampton to Hanover, has contracted diphtheria.

The Rev. Fr. O'Callaghan, O. U. Cap., of the Paradise Rectory, who was assisting at the Forty Hours' Devotion in the Church of the Immaculate Conception, was taken suddenly ill on Monday evening and had to be removed to his home.

Butcher Wm. N. Hulick is confined to his home on Carlisle street, by illness.

Edward S. Breeks, successful Republican candidate for Congress from the York-Adams district, has filed an expense account of $4017.03. Of this $1000 was contributed to the York County committee and $800 to the Adams County committee. A large part of the remainder was paid for advertising. Hon. A. R. Brodbeck has not filed his expense account here.

C. Arthur Greist, successful Republican candidate for the State Legislature, has filed an account of $401 15 of which $250 went to the county committee; while J. I. Herter, his opponent, spent $482 50, $300 of which was his contribution to the party committee. C. W. Bacher has not filed.

A stranger asked him for a match and while he was reaching for his pocket to accommodate the fellow, Morris Carter, of York, looked into a revolver, while the stranger went through his pockets and took $50. Then the stranger disappeared. The holdup occurred on Saturday night.

The house on the farm of Professor H. A. Surface and occupied by the tenant farmer, T. W. Grubb, about two miles south of Mechanicsburg, was burned to the ground. An overheated stove caused the fire. The loss is estimated at about $2,500 and no insurance. The farmer removed nearly all his goods into another vacant house on the farm.

Mourning for dead for fifteen years, William Swam, a veteran of the Civil War, returned to his former home, Marietta, and greeten his old friends and fellow members of the past fifteen years Post, G. A. R. For the general Welsh Post, G. A. R. For the past five years Mr. Swam has been residing in Baltimore, and all trace of him had been lost.

ship, who has been serving as an instructor of military tactics at Camp Grant, Ill., has been discharged from service and returned to his home. He received his commission at Plattsburg last summer, having gone there from Ursinus College, where he was studying for the ministry. After the holidays he will resume his studies at that institution.