

SAYS PROSPERITY REGIONS IN SOUTH

Waterloo Traveler Finds Crops Good and General Air of Wealth Prevailing.

"Crops are maturing in fine shape in the south," said Peter Marvellis, who returned yesterday from a tour of the grain raising south, and especially over the states of Kansas and Oklahoma.

"The present high price of potatoes cannot be traced to any other cause than the fact that the crop is exceptionally short in stock. In other years the grain grows to a height of two to three feet, but this year the short grain stands, in the south, is nowhere over one and a half feet.

PREACHES SERMON AT 85 IN CHURCH FIRST VISITED IN YEAR 1863

"For him that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile. Let him eschew evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and ensue it. For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers, but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil."—I Peter. His mind clear, his memory acute, but his voice weakened by the burden of his years, Rev. J. C. Kepford, 85 years old, last Sunday preached a stirring gospel sermon from the above scripture at Bethel church, Pleasant Prairie, three miles east of Independence.
